*KEY TO HATE CRIMES NOTATIONS

Type of Bias or Prejudice--Race= ra, Gender= g, Religion= re, Sexual Orientation= s, Ethnicity= e, Disability= d.

This category includes all on-campus incidents, including those listed in the category below, "In dormitories or other residential facilities." Therefore, the two categories are not cumulative, but duplicative.

Note: With the 1998 amendments the Student-Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act was formally renamed the "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act" more simply "The Clery Act."

FERPA: Clarification of the interplay of the disclosures required under the "Clery Act" and the prohibitions against the disclosure of information from education records contained in the "Family Education Rights and Privacy Act" (FERPA). FERPA provides no barrier to compliance with the disclosures Under "Clery Act". The reporting of crime statistics by an institution of the occurrence of crimes on campus does not violate FERPA. FERPA protects the nonconsensual disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records: FERPA does not protect statistical information. FERPA does not preclude an institution's compliance with the timely warning provision of the "Clery Act." Information can, in case of an emergency, be released without consent when needed to protect health and safety of others (34 C.F.R. Sections 99.31(b)(6) & 99.36). The "Clery" Act amended FERPA to allow institutions to disclose to the victim of an alleged crime of violence the results of a disciplinary proceeding brought against a student accused of the crime. Without prior consent of the accused. This disclosure is limited to the alleged victim who should be informed that the information may not be disclosed to the general public (20 U.S.C. Section 1232g(b)(6)).
